The third batch of Geeta Class Level-4 began with a grand welcome ceremony on 15 November 2021. About 8000 members joined this new batch. The program started with prayer and lighting of the lamp by Ms. Anuradha Ji Vaidishwar, who is from Malaysia, and Ms. Anita Ji Kulkarni, a resident of Pune, lit the lamp.

Inauguration of the program was performed by, Dr. Ashu ji Goel, (National Vice President, Geeta Pariwar and Program Director of Online Geeta Santha) he said, "Ja par kripa ram ki hoi, ta par kripa karhi sab koi. It's God's compassion on us that all of you can reach level 4". He said that P. P. Swamiji's 'Geeta Padhe, Padhaye, Jiwan me laaye' should resonate now. He asked us to become Geeta volunteer, to become Geeta Pracharaks to deliver the message Ghar Ghar Geeta; Har Kar Geeta to every doorstep.

He said, by purifying our internal demonic dispositions, we have to amass spiritual excellence and by partaking in this divine work, we can become very dear to God.

After this passionate, enthusiastic, and inspirational speech, the Sadhak who got by heart the Geeta Ji directed a few verses from different chapters by the examiner's and the trainees were introduced to their cultivated proficiency by reciting the complete 2 verses clearly and accurately. This direct orientation was very inspiring for the aspirants who want to appear for various examinations. Many Sadhak also delivered their experiences about their Geeta journey up to level 4 and while sharing their mind, they said...

• The individuality of the online Geeta class is was promising. With this, the sadhak from the age of 7 to 85 years can learn the pronunciation of shlokas very easily.

• Many highly educated sadhak from many countries across the globe are providing services in different faculties of the Geeta Pariwar while attaining from level 1 to level 4.

• Sadhaks are experiencing the grace of the Supreme Lord by undergoing optimistic energy, immense harmony in their vitalities even in times of mishap.

• By comprehending the meanings of the chapters in the Arth-Vivechan session, the Sadhak's are getting ready to really carry out the life system contained with the Geeta.

• 88 years old sadhak Sindhu Kakiji who learns the verses of Geeta Ji with great enthusiasm every day said that the light of Geetaji is surging within her and the Geeta Pariwar has given her a treasure in the form of ShrīmadBhagavadGītā. She will go to meet Lord Krishna only with that treasure. The Geeta Pariwar gave her love, respect. Even at this stage of time, she considers herself dynamic and energetic. Now she is thinking of giving the Gītā Pāṭhak exam.

• At the end of the program, Ms. Namita Ji Mehra, a resident of Mumbai, thanked everyone, and Mr. Megh Ji Thakurdesai, who was associated with the OGC from Canada, recited the closing prayer.
